Dresser Waukesha Names Hutchinson Vice President of Aftermarket

WAUKESHA, Wis. – Dresser Waukesha, a leading manufacturer of natural gas engines that deliver clean, cost-effective power, has named Bob Hutchinson vice president of aftermarket. Hutchinson will be responsible for the ongoing development, management and growth of the company's aftermarket business including sales of Genuine Waukesha Parts, product training and service.

Hutchinson comes to Dresser Waukesha from Cummins, Inc. where he was vice president and general manager – parts and service. During his 20-year tenure with Cummins, Hutchinson held a series of progressively responsible positions that included plant manager, general manager of remanufacturing and various roles in aftermarket support. He began his career as a plant engineer at General Motors after graduating from the General Motors Institute with a degree in industrial engineering. He has a master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan.

“When Waukesha ships an engine, it comes with our commitment to support it with high-performance Genuine Waukesha Parts and our global network of independent distributors and their expert service technicians,” said Brian White, interim president, Dresser Waukesha. “We're delighted to have Bob's breadth and depth of experience to champion the Genuine Waukesha brand.”
